Course Overview

IHRM: C00259

Organization culture is an integral part of business. It affects nearly every aspect of a company. From recruiting top talent to improving employee satisfaction, it's the backbone of a happy workforce. Without a positive corporate culture, many employees will struggle to find the real value in their work, and this leads to a variety of negative consequences for your bottom line. There's a reason why companies who are named as a Best Place to Work see so much success. These organizations tend to have strong, positive corporate cultures that help employees feel and perform their best at work. In this workshop you will learn how to build a great organizational culture.
