Course Overview

The HRLAW Kenya TM course covers the Employment Act, 2007 which began on 2nd June 2008. It is Kenya's main labor law that seeks to provide for the basic terms and working conditions for employees. It also looks to ensure reasonable employment standards while balancing businesses' needs to stay competitive. A good understanding of the Employment Act will result in positive Employee Engagement and build Industrial Relations harmony by minimizing disputes between Employers and Employees or Union. As such, it shapes the responsibilities and relationship between Employers and Employees. During the webinar, participants will be able to differentiate Contract of Service and Contract for Service, Termination and Dismissal, to identify when an employment contract is broken, to handle no show cases for recruitment, as well as the legal requirements for public holidays, sick leaves, annual leave and maternity leave. The trainer will also cover on the Legal Notice No. 28 which came into effect on 14th March 2014.
